

The Western Australian branch of the Petroleum Exploration Society of Australia (PESA WA) in association with Woodside Energy Ltd is offering an award to a Ph.D. student currently studying a petroleum exploration related discipline. The aim of the program is to promote and encourage petroleum related research and education in Western Australia. In 2017, AUD$2,000 will be available to a distinguished student who is currently undertaking full time study at a Western Australian university.

Eligibility criteria and guidelines are provided below. Application form is included on page 2.

ELIGIBILITY

The Woodside-PESA WA Ph.D. Scholarship Program is open to students who, at the application deadline, are:

1. Enrolled as a Ph.D. student in a geology or geophysics program at The University of Western Australia or Curtin University;
2. A current student member of PESA.

PESA MEMBERSHIP

Students wishing to be considered for a Woodside-PESA WA Ph.D. Scholarship for the current year need to be approved PESA members at the time awards are considered. Student membership is $27.50/year and includes free access to the PESA library and subsidised attendance at technical lunches and short courses. Registration is available online at www.pesa.com.au.
